

Solaimes joins Mobile Innovation Programme. 16th/August/07

Madrid. Solaimes joins the Mobile Innovation Programme (www.mobileinnovation.org). Solaimes has been accepted into the GSM Association's recently launched Mobile Innovation Programme.

Solaimes, which is focused on mobility and is committed to innovation, believes this GSMA initiative will speed up the early adoption of mobile innovation by carriers and strength the technology ecosystem.

About Mobile Innovation Programme.

The Mobile Innovation Programme has been created by the GSMA in order to showcase and promote the best in mobile innovation. By giving early insight into breakthrough technologies, the Programme will ensure that innovation is broadly aligned with operators' business strategies and end user needs, leading to faster and wider adoption by operators and delivering value for all stakeholders.
